- ii. To encourage affiliation of all interested clubs.
- iii. To establish UKRA as “the primary liaison” with HSE, CAA, Police, UK Space Agency and other interested parties.
- iv. To operate a flight certification scheme.
- v. To promote rocketry through education.
 - i. To issue a publication promoting amateur rocketry and the aims of the association.
 - vi. To promote amateur rocketry in the United Kingdom

3 Membership

3.1 UKRA Membership Types

- i. Full Senior Member: This grants full access to the facilities offered by UKRA including access to UKRA publications, full voting rights, and the right to stand for election to any office within the Association. The minimum age for Full Senior Membership is 18 years of age.
- ii. Full Junior Member: This is available to anyone under 18 years of age. All membership rights of a Full Senior Member are available, excluding the right to stand for election.
- iii. Honorary Member: This membership is a discretionary membership granted by the UKRA Council under terms suiting the grant. Terms may be overridden by changes in membership types, terms or rules at the sole discretion of the UKRA Council.

3.2 Club Affiliation

- i. Other clubs and organisations may affiliate to the Association at the discretion of the council. Rules for granting Affiliate Status are given in the UKRA Rules And Regulations.

4 Subscriptions

- i. All membership subscription rates shall be as determined by the Council from time to time.
- ii. The Council may at its discretion introduce and withdraw discount membership types or schemes, and / or alter their conditions. Any schemes are described in the UKRA Rules And Regulations.

5 Annual General Meeting

5.1 Date, Place and Time.

- i. The council shall determine the date, place and time of the meeting.
- ii. There will be one Annual General Meeting per calendar year.

5.2 Representation.

The following shall be entitled to be present:

- i. Council Members including Elected Officers
- ii. All current members of the association who have fully paid the current membership subscription at least one month before the meeting.
- iii. Invited guests.
- iv. Any member or representative of the Police, Fire & Rescue Services, Judiciary, Military, relevant Regulatory / Enforcement Bodies or Government with an interest in the proceedings.

5.3 Notice of Annual General Meeting and Business to be Transacted.

- i. The secretary shall give at least eight (8) weeks minimum notice of the date of the AGM.
- ii. The Secretary shall issue the Annual General Meeting Agenda and Election nominations prior to the date of the Annual General Meeting.
- iii. The Agenda for the Annual General Meeting shall provide for:
 1. Chairman's Remarks.
 2. Receive the Minutes of the previous Annual General Meeting.
 3. Receive the Annual Report of the Council.
 4. To consider the Audited Financial Statements, Balance Sheet, and the Report of the Auditors.

5.4 Alteration to Constitution.

- i. Notice of any proposed alteration to the Constitution of the Association must be submitted in writing by the proposer to the Secretary at least two (2) weeks before the Annual General Meeting for inclusion on the Agenda.
- ii. Any alterations to the constitution will come into effect immediately following a successful vote.

5.5 General Business.

- i. Providing that due notice in writing has been given to the Secretary at least two (2) weeks before the Annual General Meeting, any matters of "General Business" will be included on the Agenda.

5.6 Voting

- i. General Voting. Each person qualified to attend the Annual General Meeting by representation under 5.2 (ii) shall have one vote. A majority of votes cast shall decide all matters before the meeting, except for any proposed alteration to the Constitution of the Association which must be supported by at least two-thirds of the vote.
- ii. Election to Council. All Full and Associate members are entitled to vote and will be able to cast Five (5) votes for separate individuals standing for Election to Council. Vote will be taken by ballot, before commencement of the Annual General Meeting. The Eight (8) candidates receiving the highest number of votes will form the Council. In the event of the same number of votes being cast for the final positions on the council lots will be drawn to assign places.
- iii. Postal Votes. Qualified persons unable to attend the Annual General Meeting may submit a postal vote in regard to Council Elections to the Secretary of the Association; such postal votes must be received by the Secretary, addressed to UKRA's postal address, at least one week before the date of the Annual General Meeting.
- iv. Electronic voting. Where appropriate - and when a suitable and secure methodology can be implemented - voting on all issues and Elections may be carried out online or through online meetings. Such voting methods are to be available in addition to, but not in replacement of, more traditional methods for those Members able and willing to use them.

6 Special General Meeting

6.1 Convening the meeting

- i. The Secretary shall convene a Special General Meeting by order of the Council or upon receiving a request to do so signed by not less than ten percent (10%), or at least twenty (20) Members of the Association, whichever is the greater.

6.2 Notice

- i. The Secretary shall give one calendar month notice of all Special General Meetings.

6.3 Date, Place and Time

- i. The Council shall determine the date, place and time of such meetings.

6.4 Agenda

- i. An agenda of the meeting shall accompany the Notice, and shall take the nature of the business for which the Meeting is being summoned.

6.5 Other Business

- i. No other business shall be discussed at the Special General Meeting.

6.6 Representation

- i. The requirements of item 5.2 will apply

6.7 Alteration to Constitution

- i. Where a request under item 6.1 calls for an alteration to the Constitution, the Council, after due consideration, may if they so decide, instruct the Secretary to include on the Agenda their views on the matter.

6.8 Voting

- i. The conditions of section 5.6 will apply.

7 Discontinuance Of The Association

7.1 Discontinuation

- i. Should an alteration of the Constitution which would involve the discontinuation of the Association, as at present constituted, be carried at an Annual General Meeting or a Special General Meeting, by the appropriate majority as specified in 5.6, the Executive Officers shall then refer this resolution to a postal ballot. All members who have representation rights under 5.2 (ii) at the date of the meeting shall be included in the postal ballot. The postal ballot shall be held as soon as is practicable following the aforementioned meeting.

7.2 Validity of resolution

- i. The resolution shall only become valid if it is supported by at least 75% of the total votes recorded in such a postal ballot.

7.3 Confirmation of discontinuation

- i. Should the result of the ballot confirm that the discontinuance of the Association, as at present constituted, the Council will take the necessary steps to wind up the Association at the earliest possible opportunity.

8 Executive Officers Of The Association

8.1 Executive Officers

- i. The Executive Officers of the Association shall consist of a Chairman, Deputy Chairman, Treasurer and Secretary.

11.1 The Council

- i. The Association shall be governed by a Council.
- ii. The Council shall manage, through its Committees, the affairs of the Association in accordance with the Constitution and Rules and Regulations of the Association and shall have all such administrative powers as may be necessary to properly carry out the objectives of the Association.

11.2 Council Members

- i. The Council shall consist of a maximum of Eight (8) members, as follows:
 1. Elected Executive Officers of the Association
 2. Elected Council Members
 3. Co-opted Council Members. These are Full members recruited to Council by elected Council members for specialist knowledge or to fill Council vacancies.

11.3 Election to Council

- i. The Council should be elected by a ballot concluded immediately prior to the commencement of the Annual General Meeting to serve during the period from one Annual General Meeting to the next in accordance with the voting procedures specified in 5.6.ii) and 5.6.iii).
- ii. The Secretary shall call for nominations to council when the AGM is called. Any eligible member may nominate themselves to the Secretary for inclusion on the next Council ballot. Nominations should be received by the Secretary no later than four (4) weeks prior to the AGM.
- iii. The Secretary shall post/publish online ballot forms for all eligible members at least 3 weeks prior to the AGM.

11.4 Financial Matters

- i. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing the Council shall have the power:

1. To purchase or otherwise acquire any real or personal property of any interest in the same respectively on behalf of the Association and out of funds of the Association which shall be considered for the benefit of the Association at large whether directly or indirectly connected with the aims of the Association.
2. To give direction to improve, develop, manage, mortgage, let or sell any real or personal property of the Association and to turn the same to profit and advantage, in any way that the Council may deem desirable.
3. To borrow money either at one time or from time to time and at such rate of interest and in such form and manner upon any such security as the Council shall determine. The Council shall make all such dispositions of the property of the Association or any part thereof and enter into such agreements in relation thereto, as it may deem proper for giving security of such loans and interest.
4. To lend or invest such funds or surplus monies accrued in trust for the Association as a whole in such manner and upon such terms, as the Council shall deem fit.
5. To subscribe or make grants from the funds of the Association to any other Association, Profession, Journal, Institution, Charity or other body having similar interests in the Association.

11.5 Attendance At Council Meetings

- i. Should any member of the Council be absent from five (5) consecutive meetings of the Council without reasonable excuse the council shall have at its sole discretion power to declare the seat vacant.
- ii. Should any member of Council be unable to attend a Council meeting, the member should inform the secretary of such in advance of the meeting.

11.6 Council Standing Orders

- i. The Council shall have authority to make Standing Orders to regulate and control the business of the Council and the conduct of its members. Any member of the Council may propose amendments, alterations or additions to the Council Standing Orders by giving in writing to the Secretary a Notice of Motion, which shall then appear, on the Agenda for the next ensuing Meeting of the Council.
- ii. Any accepted amendments, alterations or additions to the Council Standing Orders will be communicated to the membership at the first possible opportunity.

11.7 Council Quorum

- i. Each meeting of the Council must have a quorum of three (3) members including at least one (1) executive officer in attendance before the business of the Council can be proceeded with.

11.8 Delegation Of Powers

- i. The Council shall have power to appoint such Committees or Commissions as may be considered necessary, and delegate all or any of its powers to such Committees or Commissions.

11.9 Emergency Committee

- i. The Executive Officers of the Association shall have full delegated powers to act for and on behalf of the Council in matters of an urgent nature arising between meetings of the Council, and where they have so acted they shall report the circumstances to the next meeting of the Council.

12 Rules And Regulations Of The Association

12.1 Council's Powers.

- i. The Council of this Association shall have power to make rules and regulations from time to time as they deem necessary, which shall become effective upon publication.

12.2 Amendments

- i. Any member may propose amendments, alterations or additions to the Rules And Regulations by giving in writing to the Secretary a Notice of Motion, which shall then appear, on the Agenda for the next ensuing Meeting of the Council.
- ii. Any accepted amendments, alterations or additions to the Rules And Regulations will be communicated to the membership at the first possible opportunity.
